

Christmas Brick Challenge Chair

(Children's Activities Department)

The Georgia Festival of Trees is seeking a dynamic and dedicated volunteer to lead our annual Christmas Brick Challenge as Chairperson.

This key volunteer position holds the responsibility for connecting with passionate LEGO enthusiasts who are participating in the competition, assisting them through the registration process, and ensuring a seamless and joyful experience both prior to and during the festival.

Key Responsibilities:

- Participant Key Contact: Serve as the primary contact for competitors throughout the registration process, ensuring participants are informed, prepared and enthused about the event.
- Record Keeping: Maintain meticulous records of all interactions with competitors to ensure a detailed understanding of participant needs and event dynamics.
- Teamwork: Collaborate closely with the Children's Area Director and Executive Team to address frequently asked questions and provide accurate, timely information for the festival website.
- Competition Coordination: Work alongside the Children's Activities Director and the LEGO area sponsor to coordinate the Christmas Brick Challenge judging process, providing an organized and fair assessment of the entries.
- Award Ceremony Planning & Execution: Play an extensive role in orchestrating the award ceremony, celebrating the ingenuity and talent of the challenge participants.

Qualifications & Skills:

- Must Love Legos: A genuine love and enthusiasm for LEGOs is essential, bringing a sense of excitement and passion to the role.
- Organized: Exceptional organizational skills to manage and track participants effectively.
- Friendly: A friendly disposition, enjoying interaction with children and families, creating an inclusive and welcoming environment.
- Tech-Savvy: Has the capability to manage digital records and communicate effectively via email and other online platforms.
- Team Player: Willing to lend a hand with event set-up and tear-down, showing dedication to all aspects of the festival's success.
